

KILLING THE Messenger

More than 1,000 journalists and other news professionals have died in the course of their work over the past decade.

Most were investigative or campaigning reporters in places such as Russia, Colombia, Philippines and Mexico – murdered because they tried to shine the light of truth onto dark corners.

Each death chokes the free flow of information – the oxygen that sustains democracy.

The International News Safety Institute (INSI)

was set up by news organisations, journalist support groups, humanitarian bodies and individual journalists to help news men and women in danger.

We provide free safety training for colleagues who cannot afford their own ...

We lobby internationally and persuaded the UN Security Council to pass Resolution 1738 on the safety of journalists and impunity for their killers ...

We act as a safety information exchange ... We set up the world's first news media kidnap/hostage helpline.

INSI is unique – the only journalist support organisation in the world solely devoted to safety.

INSI is a not-for-profit charity. We urgently need contributions from concerned journalists to continue our work.

Go to www.newssafety.com and join INSI today or make a donation to help friends and colleagues in hostile environments to ...

Survive The Story

 INTERNATIONAL NEWS SAFETY INSTITUTE
CREATING A CULTURE OF SAFETY IN MEDIA